

Off-the-beaten-track Jamaica

Harding Hall Guest House, near Green Island, Hanover, is an idyllic rural retreat with swimming pool, two double bedrooms, wrap-around verandah and lots of hammocks from which to watch the hummingbirds. Sea views from hilltop setting. This is suitable for a family of four, or as a peaceful retreat for one or two. One hour from Montego Bay, and twenty minutes from Negril and its famous seven-mile beach. There is also a small 1 bedroom cottage suitable for two people and one child. This is not available separately, but may be rented with the Guest House. The caretaker lives on site and can help with cooking if required.

High Season (mid December to mid April) US$910 per week/$1300 inc cottage

Low season (mid April to mid December) US$700/$1000 inc cottage

Longer and shorter stays are available by negotiation.

To book, please email hardinghall@cwjamaica.com or go to <https://www.airbnb.co.uk/rooms/2502580>. Or you can email rosie@onformsculpture.co.uk to communicate with the English owner who can explain more about the very special character of this much-loved spot.